

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations air a Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of democracy and free speech at work.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I can not think of a better way to serve the public interest than to let the public know something of Kerry's past.

Sinclair's actions show why our democracy is strong. Thank you.